Mr. William E. Colby
Director Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20013

Dear Mr. Colby:

Through the good graces of one of our members, a World II CIC Special Agent, we have kept in touch with your availability to address our CIC Convention in Chicago on Saturday evening, August 2, 1975.

Initially formed in 1946, our group constitutes an alumni group of former and some present intelligence agents of the U.S. Army who have an increasing concern over the turn of events attacking the intelligence structure of our services. Your position in this regard is commendable and we hope we can extend to you an opportunity to express your thoughts to a receptive audience.

It is with this in mind that we would like to have you address our group. May we ask the pleasure of having Mrs. Colby as well to join us as our guests through the convention period from Friday, August 1 through Sunday morning, August 3 farewell brunch.

It was my honor recently to be a guest of General Harold R. Aaron who also suggested your name for our speaker, not knowing our previous contact with your office. The General and Mrs. Aaron have accepted our invitation to be our convention guests.

We are preparing our program of events and would appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Stephen Jurco
